JOHN AUSTIN

John Austin was born in England, February 7, 1868, and came to Utah with his parents when he was about two years old. The family settled in Lehi and he lived there until 1886, when he came to Heber Valley with a small herd of sheep. A Mr. Wines was part owner in the flock. A few years later he bought Wines' interest and began investing in real estate. He bought the Howe farm of 160 acres in Center Creek. It was considered one of the best farms in the valley. He continued to increase his holdings and soon was the owner of several thousand acres of land. His flocks increased until he was one of the largest sheep owners in the country. About this time he and his brother, George and several other enterprising men, incorporated the Heber Land and Livestock Company with a capital stock of $100,000. The business increased to $400,000.

John was chairman of the board of county commissioners of Wasatch County and also chairman of the State Board of Sheep Commissioners.

On the 7th of March 1891 he married Sadie Thomas of Center Creek. They built one of the finest homes in Wasatch County. It is the present home of Emma Wherfitt.

50 Years of Togetherness

The children of Ray and Emma Chadburn Young request the company of friends near and far in celebrating their parent's Golden Wedding Anniversary. An open house will be held Saturday, June 28 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. at the Wallburg Ward Church. A program will be at 7:00 p.m.

Married on June 26, 1936, Ray and Emma have lived in Wallburg for most of their marriage. Their marriage was solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple May 21, 1954. Ray has worked as a truck driver, sheepherder, rancher, and a Geneva Steel employee. Emma taught Primary and concentrated her efforts on her home and family. They raised six children: three boys and three girls. Glenn Young, Wallburg; Lois Clark, Woods Cross; Lucille Hellstrom, Sandy; Morley Young, Center Creek; LaRae Hibbert, West Valley City; and Dee Young, Wallburg. They now have 16 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren. Your attendance on Saturday, June 28 would be the most thoughtful gift they could receive. No presents, please.
